DCP-6690CW Professional A3 Colour Inkjet Multifunction Printer with Touchscreen LCD and Wired/Wireless Network

Do More with Brother's new inkjet multifunction printer:
You can print, copy and scan up to A3 – making the DCP-6690CW an invaluable member of your team.

The compact DCP-6690CW offers professional quality A3 multifunction performance, enabling you to Do More and giving you a flexibility that is unique to the latest Brother inkjet multifunction generation.

Its large 4.2" wide touchscreen LCD makes it even easier to navigate the DCP-6690CW. Simply touch the screen to access its diverse functions, which include viewing your photos individually, as a slideshow, or even editing them without a computer. Additionally, Brother's Control Centre software makes it easy to manage printing and scanning from your PC.

The wireless network is ready to use and incredibly easy to set up, so you can connect to your network without the need for untidy cables – although hard wire connection is an option.

With two separate paper trays, holding up to 400 sheets, you don't have to switch the paper supply every time you print in a different format. The 50-page Automatic Document Feeder makes copying multi-page documents much more comfortable, and speeds up the process considerably.

Furthermore, purchasing one machine instead of three, and using separate high yield ink cartridges results in a lower cost per page and thus saves you money.

The DCP-6690CW complies with the strict German Blue Angel, and the internationally renowned ENERGY STAR® environmental standards, which means your A3 multifunction printer has minimal impact on the environment, making it the perfect solution for your business.
